IMPORTANT:

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. When you open an account, you will be asked for your name, date of birth (for a natural person), your residential address or principal place of business, and mailing address, if different, as well as your Social Security Number or Taxpayer Identification Number. Additional information is required for corporations, partnerships and other entities. Applications without such information will not be considered in good order. The Fund reserves the right to deny an application if it is not in good order. Please note that the value of your account may be transferred to the appropriate state if no activity occurs in the account within the time period specified by state law.

PART X: WITHHOLDING NOTICE AND ELECTION FORM (Form W4P/OMB No. 1545-0074) Department of Treasury, Internal Revenue Service

Withholding Election is not necessary for Roth accounts.

NOTICE: The distributions you receive from your IRA are subject to Federal income tax withholding unless you waive withholding. You may waive withholding on your IRA distribution by returning a signed and dated IRS Form W-4P, Withholding Certificate for Pension or Annuity Payments, or substitute Form W-4P to the Custodian. Withholding will apply to the total amount of the distribution, whether taxable or not. If you waive withholding on your IRA distribution, or if you do not have enough Federal income tax withheld from your IRA distribution, you may be responsible for payment of estimated tax. You may incur penalties under the estimated tax rules if your withholding and estimated tax payments are not sufficient. You are responsible for determining and paying all Federal, and if applicable, state and local taxes on distributions from all IRAs you own. If you do not waive withholding or elect an alternative withholding amount, ten percent will be withheld from your nonperiodic IRA distribution. Your election is valid until you revoke it. You may change your withholding election by completing another Form W-4P or substitute. If you are a non-resident alien you may not use Form W-4P to withhold income tax or to waive withholding.

Election: Unless you indicate a different withholding amount below or you waive withholding by indicating your election below, ten percent will be withheld from your IRA distribution.

- I do not want federal income tax withheld from my distribution from this account.
- I want federal income tax of 10% withheld from my distribution from this account.

Please refer to the list of mandatory state withholding rates included on the Tax Withholding Information Addendum. To obtain a copy of the addendum please visit the Fund’s website or contact a Shareholder Services representative at the number below. You may change your state withholding election on your IRA distribution by submitting the change in writing to the Custodian. Please contact a tax professional regarding the possible tax implications prior to making a redemption request.
